

Good Practices Train-the-Trainers event series

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Rotterdam University of Applied Sciences

*Have you considered the future opportunities of multiculturalism in and for learning & professional development?
What are the critical challenges of multiculturalism in the pandemic time and online learning culture?
How to adopt wisely to a new multicultural environment?
What makes a good lecturer (trainer) in & for a multicultural environment?*

Programme (the Finnish time): August 18, 2021 / Workshop on Managing Multiculturalism & Adaptation in Learning & Professional Development

- 11.00-11.30 Multiculturalism & Adaptation: perspectives, practical aspects and challenges
- 11.30-12.15 Work in breakout groups
- 12.15-12.30 Virtual coffee break
- 12.30-13.00 Joint discussion in the main room & Wrap-up

The workshop will be co-led by senior lecturer and business expert, Harrison Okuogume (harrison.okuogume@xamk.fi) and project manager, educator and program head Mikhail Nemilentsev (mikhail.nemilentsev@xamk.fi).

The workshop will be organized fully online in Microsoft Teams. To open the link in a browser and participate in a breakout session, you would need to use a computer, a laptop, or a tablet. The use of smart phones is not recommended.

Please use the following link: Click here to join the meeting

The workshop will be organized South-Eastern Finland University of Applied Sciences (XAMK) - an institute of higher education which focuses on wellbeing, technology, and creative industries (www.xamk.fi). XAMK – All for the future.

Xamk is a strong implementer of RDI activities and it is currently Finland's largest UAS in the field of RDI, based on external financing alone. There are over 250 ongoing projects annually, in which our experts find, test and develop new products and services, or conduct research for future needs.

The Train-the-Trainers event series (Short-term joint staff training event) is part of ERASMUS+ KA2 (Cooperation for Innovation and Exchange of Good Practices) project "European Entrepreneurship Training Community" and is funded by the ERASMUS+ program of the European Union. More information: <https://goodpractices.eu/>